Deziak Clan Releases Single from Upcoming Album Ghetto Gumbo

CARSON, CA February, 2006...The first single from Deziak Clan's much-anticipated second album Ghetto Gumbo is on streets now, adding hot beats produced by Emery Finagler and Grammy-nominated producer Kee Swizzo to the erotic ways women "talk dirty." The single release features "Talk Dirty," a Rap/Hip Hop collage of real-life sexual cyber fantasies described by each member of Deziak Clan--Emery Finagler, Xstasy E, Shottie Recendes, and 4 to the S.

While cleverly fusing flirtatious habits with sensual seductive storylines, Deziak Clan relays a few personal experiences that are so widespread in both of today's cyber and mobile communities. "Talk Dirty" brings back emotions of the past, present, and future rendezvous.

"Baby calls me on the cell phone--and talks dirty,

Baby sends me text messages-- and talks dirty,

Baby sends me freaky email --and talks dirty,

Keep on talking to me dirty we gone have to see the momo"

"We were at the studio recording one night and all of the [Deziak Clan] group members had text messages from various females talking dirty, so the song was born."

- Emery Finagler
